FIRST PHILIPPINE ASSEMBLY IS BEGUN WITH FINE SPEECH BY SEC'Y. OF WAR W. H. TAFT

Conveys Message of Good Will From Home Powers to Filipinos in Their Initial Step Toward Local Self Government

Manila, Oct. 15.—With impressive ceremonies and a magnificent speech by Secretary of War Taft, the first Philippine assembly opened today. In his opening speech Taft said: "President Roosevelt has sent me to convey to all Filipinos his congratulations upon this, another step in the enlargement of your powers and betterment for your conditions. It is his wish that you have peace among yourselves, and with the present government you should have peace."

COUNTY HEATING, LIGHTING PLANT TO BE INSTALLED

McCracken has a contract to install a complete electric lighting and steam heating plant for the court house and jail, to Katterjohn & Dalby for $25,000. Magistrates Itoch, Hamilton, Glendon, Hooten, Knott voted to install the plant while Magistrates Tracy, Bradford and Thompson voted against it. One other Paducah firm, the Jackson Foundry and Machine company, bid $3,100.

Manager John S. Wheeler, of the Paducah Traction company, addressed the board, explaining how his company could make a reduction in both light and heat. He refused to give a flat rate on commercial lighting, however, but agreed to take the decorative lights off the meter and place them on a flat rate.

Katterjohn & Dalby said they would install a 225-light electric plant and a steam heating plant to heat both jail and court house. If a storage battery is desired for decorative lights at night it can be installed for an additional $415. The board decided against the storage battery.

The plant is to be located back of the jail, and is to be enclosed in a concrete building. County Judge R. T. Lightfoot agreed to donate material from his concrete plant.

NO POMPADOURS GO.

Chicago Shop Girls Must Take Hats Out of Their Hair.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—There is gloom today among the army of saleswomen in Chicago's largest department stores. Word has been pronounced on the widespread pompadour which has so long adorned the heads of the women behind the counters. The ultimatum came with a sudden shock today soon after the time the clock should have ticked the arrival of the last fair weather. In one establishment alone 20 young women were meekly and obediently discharged without recommendation because they refused to tear down the idol of their dreams—that big pompadour.

L. D. HUSBANDS DIED AT 3 P. M.

Judge L. D. Husbands died about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

They Dey for Bishop.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 16.—Bishop McCloskey, of Louisville, continued 246 children and adults here on the occasion of his present visit. This is the largest class ever confirmed here by one-half.

Clowery is Be-elected.

New York, Oct. 16.—Robert C. Clowery was re-elected president of the Western Union Telegraph company this afternoon at the annual meeting.

Burial of John L. Whittington.

Versailles, Ky., Oct. 16.—The body of John L. Whittington, who died Saturday at Winchester, was brought here today and interred. Mr. Whittington leaves a widow and two sons, Elliott L. and Eugene Whittington, both of whom live in California.

HON. WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Grain Market.

Chicagout, Oct. 16.—Wheat, 1907, corn, 71 1/2; oats, 57.

NO CONVENTION OF TELEGRAPHERS SAYS PRES. SMALL

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Callers today at the home of President Small, of the Telegraphers' union, found this sign on the door, "Don't ring the bell, walk upstairs and knock very gently." Small's wife, who has been an invalid for years, is at the point of death. Small said today there will be no convention of the union at Milwaukee October 23, as ordered by the executive committee.

MUSICIANS' UNION FIGHT.

The failure of Deal's band to appear at the Woodmen of the World parade yesterday will doubtless result in a bitter union fight among musicians in Paducah. Members of Deal's band belong to local union No. 318, American Federation of Musicians, and refused to play with Jackson's band, which is non-union. It is understood that fights in several unions will be made because union tradesmen marched in the parade behind a non-union band.

VIOLENT EARTHQUAKE.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The most violent earthquake record ever made on the seismograph at the weather bureau started at 5:11 this morning. Vibrations of the needle were even greater than those caused by the San Francisco earthquake. Weather officials momentarily are expecting news that somewhere in the world an unusually severe disturbance occurred.

Another Case Against Barton.

Another case against Will Barton, who is charged already with several felonies, developed this morning. A woman boarder at Barton's boarding house, Sixth street and Broadway, lost a gold and pearl headed umbrella and suspected Barton. Detectives Moore and Baker learned that Barton visited the house of Nettie Allison, at 927 North Tenth street, and demanded the umbrella this morning. Mrs. Allison gave it up and said Barton had left it with her.

Cholera in Russia.

Vladivostok, Oct. 16.—Cholera has become so serious in the southwestern Russian provinces that alarm is felt that it may appear on this side of the border. The indifference of Russian authorities to the spread of the disease is causing much indignation here. Many deaths have occurred.

The Supreme court has ordered a permanent to be hung in the High school auditorium. The pennant is black and gold and will have on it the figures 1910.

Everybody Seems to be Delighted Over Result of The Second Day's Registration---What They Said

Democrats Did Not Make up Advantage Gained by the Republicans the First Day, in a Poll 1725 Greater Than That of Last Year

Everybody seems to be delighted with the total registration of the two days this year. Republicans say the Democrats did not make a proportionate gain, as compared with the increase in the poll; Democrats say they got out as many as they expected yesterday and their percentage was greater than that of the Republicans compared with the first day, while all citizens are delighted with a registration that brings out 1,743 more voters than last year, and 1,000 more than four years ago, the latter data indicating a gratifying increase in the population.

The grand total registration yesterday was 951. Republicans, 544; Democrats, 331; Independents, 76.

Last year, with a total registration of 3,115, the Democrats led by 672. This year with a total registration of 5,149 they lead by 53, showing that while the total registration has increased, the Democrats have not retained their relative lead; the point being that the greater the total vote, the greater proportionately must be the majority of the leading party to maintain its advantage.

The Republicans expect to get a big Democratic vote, as it has always been the experience that the Democrats do not carry their full strength by 10 per cent at the polls, while there are more than 100 Republicans yet to be registered.

Concerning the outlook, Alderman E. E. Bell, Republican chairman, said: "It is gratifying. The Democrats did not make up the gain we secured on the first day, and with a largely increased registration, we cut the majority on poll sharply. Then, too, the registration is more accurate and perfect than it ever has been before. Of course, we did not expect to lead in the registration. We always do get a big Democratic vote, and with the independent vote, the indicated Democratic majority is too small to be depended on, without considering the scratching that is promised."

"We have something like a hundred out of the city on both registration days, who will qualify for voting by swearing to the facts."

"The Democratic committee conceals us 250 of their votes, and that cuts away 500 of their lead, without counting the 161 Independents, 90 per cent of which belongs to us. I am confident we shall get at least 500 and perhaps 1,000 of these registered voters. Their gains from our side will be practically nothing. You can judge for yourself where I place the minimum of Smith's majority. There is no telling how big it will go."

City Attorney Tom Harrison, Democratic candidate for mayor, is confident, or says he is.

"We will beat Mr. Smith from 350 to 500," he said this morning. "It may go to 800. The registration was perfectly satisfactory, except that we have about 100 votes to get out at the supplemental registration. The registration shows the normal majority."

Small Blaze Put Out.

The No. 1 fire company was called to the residence of Prof. J. D. Smith Third and Madison streets, this morning to extinguish a small blaze, which threatened out houses. Hot ashes caught the fence, and after fighting the fire for nearly an hour unsuccessfully, the family called the firemen. A small section of the fence was burned, and damage will amount to little.

BUTTER IS SCARCE.

The scarcity of butter has caused the prices to soar skyward on the Paducah market, country butter, the good grade of which is almost unobtainable selling for 30 and 35 cents a pound, while 10 cents a pound is asked for creamery butter. Dealers say that the staple is so scarce that even higher prices are expected before winter sets in.

STREET CAR WRECK.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 16.—Harry Hauch was killed and 29 injured, several seriously, in a wreck of an Elkhorn avenue car this morning. The motorist is reported to have lost control of his car at a steep grade. At a curve the car jumped the track and turned over down a bank, landing ten feet below. Six people were buried in the wreckage. The injured, mostly women, and the men were able to slide from under the outside rail, the car being an open one.

MISS LEDBETTER FIRST GRADUATE FROM RIVERSIDE

Miss Grace Ledbetter, of Elizabeth, Ill., the first graduate nurse of the Riverside hospital school, was granted a diploma yesterday by the hospital board. She has completed her two years course and is now engaged as private nurse. She is talented and most competent, and the trustees feel quite proud of their first graduate. There are five student nurses in the hospital now, and it is probable that one will graduate each year from now on. Under the direction of Miss Kinley, the superintendent, the nurses receive excellent training.

At the meeting yesterday the board gave instructions to advertise for bids to furnish groceries to the institution the next six months.

THIRD EXPLOSION WRECKED HOMES AND KILLED MANY

Pontiac, Ind., Oct. 16.—Thirty bodies of those killed by the powder explosion yesterday were identified and ten probably never will be. There are 25 in improvised hospitals. Probably no others, not so seriously injured, are helping those more dangerously hurt. The cause of the explosion has not yet been discovered and perhaps never will be known. Men, who escaped with their lives, suffered fearful tortures, and not one escaped whole. Each bears some mark. Had the people remained in their homes the death list would have been greater. Second and third explosions made wreckage of hundreds of homes.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 16.—Four thousand dollars were subscribed today for the relief of Pontiac sufferers, and $1,000 of this was appropriated at a special meeting of the city council and ordered given by Governor Hovey for the soldiers to remain on duty at least another 21 hours. At least 1,000 are injured. One more death occurred this morning. The death powder mills probably will be rebuilt.

The cause of the terrible explosion at Pontiac was a hot box's friction on the shafting in the grating mill sending sparks into loose powder. William Shook, a workman, regained consciousness in the hospital today long enough to tell this.

Judge Husbands Dying. Reports from the bedside of Judge L. D. Husbands this afternoon are that the aged jurist is still alive and is believed to be in his last hours. He has been unconscious all day and it is believed that death will come before many hours.

Visit City Rinks. Captain S. W. Crumbaugh, who will have charge of the skating rink building of Broadway and Tenth street, has gone to Louisville and Lexington to look into the operation of successful skating rinks. Work on the Paducah rink is progressing nicely, and in another week the roof will be on.

ANDY CARNEGIE DRIVES AUTHORS TO PLAY WRITING

New York, Oct. 16.—Andrew Carnegie has made book-writing unprofitable, according to Jerome K. Jerome, the well known author of humorous books, who arrived from Europe today. "Carnegie libraries have driven me out of business," he said. "There's no more money in books. The author has to turn his talent to writing plays to make a success."

PASTOR IS REMEMBERED.

The ladies of the Second Baptist church presented their pastor, Dr. L. G. Graham, with a handsome office chair at the conclusion of the services Sunday night. The revival conducted at the church has been successful.

CAPT. AGNEW WILL DIE.

Word has been received here that Capt. H. F. Agnew, who was master last year of the Chattanooga, was operated on for a tumor in a Cincinnati hospital, and can not recover. Captain Agnew is well known up and down the Ohio, Tennessee and Cumberland rivers.

FOR SWEET CHARITY.

Through the instrumentality of J. T. Donovan, the popular local agent, the Illinois Central railroad today donated to the Charity club a car of coal, and Jap Turner, agent for the club, is seeking a yard in which to store it. This comes most opportunely as the club has no coal as yet to meet early winter demands.

FORCED TO DESERT SHIP.

Sandy Hook, N. J., Oct. 15.—After making a gallant twelve hour fight the crew of the schooner, Carrie C. Miles, which went aground last evening, was forced to desert the ship at low tide today. They made a hard fight but were compelled to ask for assistance from the life savers. Shortly after they left the schooner coal laden, sank.

THE WEATHER.

CLOUDY

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Warmer in central and eastern Kentucky. Highest temperature yesterday, 70; lowest today, 46.

SECOND CASE OF INFANTICIDE CAUSES CORONER AND POLICE TO GET BUSY ON ONLY CLEW

Mrs. R. W. Chiles, of Rescue Mission Finds Dying Child on Door Step This Morning.

Police are looking for a man who telephoned the Union Rescue mission on South Third street this morning at 5:20 o'clock, and when he is found, his identity has been established, charges of murder doubtless will be preferred against him. He will be charged with leaving a girl baby, born but a few hours before, exposed on the door step of the mission. Two clues were left for the police to work on, and they are losing no time in investigating them.

Mrs. R. W. Chiles, wife of the minister, who conducts the Rescue mission, was awakened at 1:20 o'clock this morning by resounding knocks on the door of the chapel. Mr. Chiles is away from the city, having left yesterday on a home seekers' excursion for the west, and two women were Mrs. Chiles' companions. She feared that some drunken man was at the door, but rose and investigated. Mrs. Chiles heard no noise when she reached the door, and fearing to open it, retired again, but not to sleep.

"About 5:20 o'clock my telephone rang violently and I rose to answer. 'Have you opened that front door yet?' a deep masculine voice inquired. Mrs. Chiles stated, 'I told him that I had not. 'Well, you had better open it, for there's a dead man out there,' he stated in conclusion."

THIEVES DRIVE IN, TEAR DOWN FENCE AND STEAL COAL

Thieves reached "the end of the limit" in boldness last evening, when they drove a team of horses into an alley in the rear of Mrs. John Wayne's residence, 809 South Fourth street, at 8 o'clock, tore down half the back fence, and helped themselves to 25 bushels of coal. Mrs. Wayne and family attended church, leaving home shortly after dusk, and neighbors, residing directly back of her home noticed the men drive in and tear away the fence. They presumed they had been instructed to do so, and that Mrs. Wayne was selling the coal, and did not interfere. Coal is delivered to the Wayne residence through a driveway in the front yard, leading from Fourth street, there being no back gate. A description of the thieves and their team is in the hands of police, who are investigating the case.

BURNAM ELECTED G. JUNIOR WARDEN KENTUCKY SYNOD

Louisville, Oct. 16.—(Special).—R. R. Burnam, of Richmond, was elected grand junior warden of the Kentucky lodge of Masons. Other officers are Henry Barrett, of Henderson, grand master; Virgil Smith, Somerset, deputy grand master; John Cowles, of Louisville, grand senior warden.

The proposed amendment to the constitution of the Kentucky grand lodge of Masons, introduced by Mr. James Wilhelms, of Paducah, to bar liquor men from the order, was withdrawn and a substitute, not so drastic, offered.

Kentucky Synod. Midway, Ky., Oct. 16.—(Special).—Rev. T. M. Hawes was elected moderator and W. W. Akers reading clerk of the Southern Presbyterian Kentucky synod here.

LOUISVILLE SUICIDES.

Louisville, Oct. 16.—(Special).—Marion Martin killed himself on account of the failure of his wife to make up with him. This was the third suicide within 36 hours here. William Gieger, 17 years old, killed himself last night over a love affair.

"I was frightened, and seeing a light in Kamleter's stables, recollected that it was feeding time, and got Mr. Trotter, the clerk, to go to the front door with me. Instead of a dead man we found a basket covered with a skirt. Picking it up we took it into the house to find that a girl baby, sparkling wrapped, lay within. The baby was cold, having been there fully an hour, and I warmed it back to life. Failure to secure a doctor at once probably hastened the end, the child dying shortly after I rescued it."

Patrolman Sam Howell was summoned and found tracks made by a steel tread buggy leading to the front door of the chapel. He believes they were made by a "country buggy," as most city buggies are rubber tired.

The baby, from indications, had been born but a few hours before it was left at the Rescue mission door, and it was naked. It was wrapped in a thin towel and blanket, with an old skirt thrown over the basket.

Coroner Frank Baker was summoned and at 7:30 o'clock City Physician Harry P. Williamson visited the mission and an investigation showed the child to be dead. Its body was still warm.

The body was taken in charge by Coroner Frank Baker, who is assisting in the investigation.

New Certificates.

Those who chuckle over the absurdity suggested in a local paper last evening, that James P. Smith, candidate for mayor hired 25 earriages yesterday and "turned over" 23 of them to colored people, would have been "right much" amused, if they had accompanied Mr. Luther Graham, Tom Harrison's right hand man, to County Clerk Hiram Smedley's office yesterday afternoon, and witnessed a scene that aroused Mr. Graham to protest. It was nothing less nor more than a line of colored voters getting duplicate registration certificates FOR NOTHING. It would be unfair to infer from the numbers of them that somebody had bought the originals from some of these ingenious darkies, and they were renewing their supply at the expense of a little patience on the part of county officials, possibly to sell them again. Mr. Graham was quite put out to see Mr. Smedley's deputies filling out blank spaces gratis, and protested. He even insisted that the law requires the county clerk to charge a fee of 50 cents for duplicates. He was shown that the clerk is entitled to such a fee, but Mr. Smedley is square, and he insists that, as he has made out duplicates free for others, he is in honor bound to perform a like service for whoever applies.

SELLING TOBACCO SAMPLE.

The samples of the association tobacco that have been sold on the Paducah market are being prized today and will be sold, the proceeds going to the expense fund of the organization and used to defray office rent and incidental expenses. There will be about one hoghead of the samples when all are prized. This hoghead, when ready, will be the last sold until the new crop begins to come in, which is expected about the first of November.

RECKLESS HUNTERS OUT.

A belated report of a narrow escape from a tragedy is spurting Paducah sportsmen to action against hunters out of season, and Game Warden John Dean is on the alert for such violators of the law.

While Virgil Chastaine, a well known plumber, was walking Sunday afternoon on the Calo road near the Perkins' creek bridge, a gun shot rang out and scattering shot whizzed past his head, some coming so close that he could feel the wind from them. Chastaine dodged before the second shot, fired in quick succession. He saw no fireman, but observed smoke coming from a cluster of bushes at the side of the road. A hunter had shot at a covey of quail Chastaine had flushed by his appearance.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of It in Paducah, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' cry for help. Heard it. Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidneys need. They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease. Read the proof of a Paducah citizen.

Mrs. C. A. Hill, 1612 Bradford avenue, Paducah, Ky., says: "I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills a few weeks ago which I procured at DuBois Son & Co.'s drug store. I took them for general backache. I consider them a very valuable remedy so do not hesitate to give this public endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

OLD BEEF

HAS BEEN ON ICE FOR FOURTEEN YEARS IN STORAGE.

Chemist Wiley, of Government Service, is about to release it as Old Steak.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Uncle Sam's wizard in chemistry, is about to release from captivity a side of beef that has been held in a refrigerating plant for more than fourteen years. This is the story:

Two years ago, Dr. Wiley, chief chemist of the department of agriculture, inaugurated a series of experiments with a view to determining the nutritive value of meat, game, poultry, eggs, butter, milk, cream and other food products kept in cold storage for indefinite periods. The results are about to be placed in the form of a report, which will be submitted to congress at its coming session. These experiments demonstrate, it is understood, that it is unsafe to eat foods that have been kept on ice for three months or longer.

"When we started these experiments," said Dr. Wiley today, "notice of our intention was sent broadcast to the managers of refrigerating plants. One of them in Cleveland informed the department that he had a side of beef that had been in refrigeration for more than twelve years. We asked the Cleveland man to contribute it for use in our scheme of experimentation. He did."

Not to Be Fed to Poison Squad.

Dr. Wiley was asked if this long-lived piece of beef would be fed to the poison squad, whose members have laid their stomachs on the altar of science, and who for several months have been devouring all kinds of foods selected because of the belief that they are deleterious to health.

"I will not," said Dr. Wiley emphatically. "Why not?" he was asked. "We will first try it on the dog," he replied with a smile.

Then Dr. Wiley explained. Meat and other foods, if appearances are to be accepted, may be kept in cold storage for long periods without an apparent degradation in their nutritive value of quality. But between the time they are removed from a refrigerator and the time they are prepared to be fed to man or animal, the bodies may develop that would make them fatal if taken into the human stomach.

Will Be Fed to Department Dog.

The meat, poultry, game and other articles that have been in Dr. Wiley's icehouse for the last two years will not, therefore, be fed to the poison squad. Their condition will be tested by the chief chemist and his assistants in other ways. When put in the refrigerator plant in the first instance the tissues of the meat were carefully measured, and since have been remeasured at intervals.

ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE REGISTRATION CERTIFICATES

A Penitentiary Offense—Both Purchaser and Seller Guilty.

Subsection 15, of section 1583 of the Kentucky statutes provides, that "Any person or persons, who shall attempt to prevent, or prevent, any voter from casting his ballot, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction, be confined in the penitentiary for a period of years, or not less than one nor more than five years for each offence."

Section 1591, of the Kentucky person guilty of receiving a bribe for his vote at an election, shall be fined from fifty to five hundred dollars and be excluded from office and suffrage. And subsection 3 of said section reads that "whoever shall receive money or other thing of value to be used for the purpose of procuring or influencing a vote or votes shall be deemed to have been bribed."

Every attempt to purchase a registration certificate is an attempt to prevent a voter from casting his ballot, and renders the offender liable to the penitentiary penalty. And every voter who receives money or other thing of value for his registration certificate, does so for the purpose of influencing his vote, is guilty of being bribed, and is liable to the penalty fixed by the law.

Section 1591, of the Kentucky statutes further provides: "That this chapter shall be liberally construed, so as to prevent any evasions of its prohibitions and penalties by shift or device." And further requires, that violations of these laws shall be "given specially in charge to the grand jury of every county first convened after any general election."

The executive committee of the Republican party in Paducah have information that attempts have been made to purchase registration certificates in this election, and are preparing the evidence necessary to convict the offenders on warrants to be taken out before the consulting magistrates of the city.

SOCIETY GIRL A KLEPTOMANIAC?

Suspicion in Convent Robbery Directed Toward Rich Student.

Washington, Oct. 15.—A member of a wealthy family prominent in Washington society is believed to be a victim of kleptomania and to have been responsible for the mysterious robbery at the Georgetown convent a week ago. The sister superior discovered that all the jewelry belonging to the girl students and several hundred dollars of the funds of the convent had been stolen from her desk, where it was placed for safekeeping. The police struggled with the case in vain until today, when they were requested by the convent authorities to drop the case. It is reported that the sister superior has been furnished evidence tending to prove that the girl in question, aware of the valuable contents of the desk, could not resist stealing them, although she is supplied with plenty of money by her family. The convent authorities are determined to shield her. It is said, and most of the stolen property has been recovered. The police, however, say that the guilty person must be punished and refuse to drop the case.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by roughing it night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fells Tree, Confesses, Fined.

New York, Oct. 16.—"I no tella da lie, boss: I choppa da tree down with ma hatch."

Standing before Magistrate Steers today in Fifth avenue court, Brooklyn, Pasquale Rosaka, an Italian made this honest confession. He had been arrested for chopping down a small cherry tree in Dyker park, intending to take it home for firewood. His frankness did not avail, as the magistrate fined him $10.

"Georgia da Wash no tella da lie and gitta da pat on da back. I no tella da lie and gitta stung good," wailed Pasquale in disgust as he counted out the money.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Huckle's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind, and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by all druggists 25c.

Erects Monument to Dog.

Dog lovers who have pets buried in the little cemetery at Hartsdale, in the New York Times, are watching with interest to see the monument to be erected by Mrs. Stanley Allan-Shepard to her Maltese poodle which was buried in the cemetery. That Mrs. Allan-Shepard will build a vault to contain the body of her pet is certain, but what more will be done is not yet known. This will be the first vault built in the cemetery, heretofore nothing more elaborate has been put up than low headstones carved with leaves or flowers or the figure of a dog.

It is not unusual in New York for family pets to have elaborate funerals. It was not long ago that Gen. Daniel E. Sickles had a very beautiful spaniel which was laid out after his death on a bed of flowers in the parlor of the general's Fifth avenue home and placed later in an expensive coffin. The general had been a dog lover until he received this little animal as a gift, and his grief for it was very sincere. There was some trouble about the burial of the dog, for General Sickles wished it buried in his own family plot and objections were made.

Within the last few weeks a dog, the pet of a well-known young New York woman, died, was placed in an expensive oak casket and buried in the cemetery at Hartsdale. The young woman went to the undertaker who had been employed by the family, and the funeral of the pet was conducted with great ceremony and with a following of sincere mourners.

Two new headstones have been placed over the graves of pets in the little Hartsdale cemetery in the past month by the Western stonecutter who does much of this work. One which has just gone up is inscribed: "Our Sweetheart Jack, Gordon Setter, 1901-1906."

The other headstone was erected by Miss Laura Davis of Washington, Pa., for a small dog. On it are the words, "Faithful, Beloved Friend of L. Davis. Died January 21, 1907, aged eleven years." Stones like this cost from $25 to $40.

"I don't know why animals should not have a decent burial," said one New York undertaker, speaking of dogs he has buried. "They are faithful friends, and people do not feel that they can be taken out of by the ash man like so much rubbish, and they are not allowed to bury them in their own yards."

"I remember having charge of one burial which was rather elaborate. It was down on Fifteenth street some years ago. The people had the dog wrapped in silk shawls and blankets and they kissed it and cried over it as they would a baby. It was put in an expensive coffin, and the body lay in the chapel in our rooms, and people came in and out for days to weep over it and bring flowers."

One of the first notable dog funerals in New York was that of a Irish setter, which was the pet of a family uptown. In trying to follow the woman one day when they left the house the dog jumped from the window and was killed. He was put in a large white plush-covered coffin with a high arched cover. The dog was lying in a natural position, with his tail at full length. In silver lettering on the cover was his name, Dane, and on either side his collar, muzzle, leash and his ribbons. Dane is buried at Hartsdale, has a headstone, with his name on it, and an enclosed yard, with a rustic seat.

"Thousands of people came to see Dane when he was in his coffin," says C. P. Greenwald, who had charge of burying the dog. "He was a beautiful animal and looked exactly as if he were asleep. People came in crowds and we had to make them come in line, and we kept open all night, for one person telling another they came from all parts of the city so see him. He had flowers in baskets and set pieces of all kinds. I have buried other large dogs, one a beautiful collie. He was buried in a white plush-covered casket, too, and so was a handsome black cat which is also at the Hartsdale cemetery."

"People are only just beginning to learn that there is a cemetery where they can put their pets."

An All Day Cigar.

Cigars a foot and a half long, which are made for one day's smoking, were yesterday placed on view in the American Museum of Natural History. With them is a holder which looks like a tuning fork and is large enough to be used for plucking hay.

Far up the Rio Nigra, a tributary of the Amazon, two explorers, Henry Schmidt and Louis Wise, made a collection of articles for the museum. The Indians there made cigars eighteen inches long and as big around as a child's arm. One of these cigars is too much for any easy-loving man to grasp, so the Indians put the fragrant roll between the tines of a fork.

There are many other picturesque articles in the collection, which was made during a three months' journey from the coast. The material of the highest value, and nothing like it has been seen except a few articles in a German museum.—New York Herald.

THE REIGN OF LAW IN KENTUCKY.

Was it the irony of a peculiar providence that caused the editor of The Sun to read an editorial reply in the News-Democrat to The Sun's query, "What will Democratic success mean?" and then pick up the last issue of Collier's weekly and read Richard Washburn Child's story, "The Boss of Breathitt, the story of a Kentucky county and its overlords?" Whether or not it was, it is left to the reader to guess; for here is what we read in the News-Democrat: "What does the success of the Democratic ticket mean?—The Sun. "It means the reign of law in our beloved commonwealth and the striking down of lawlessness in all its hideous forms where there it raises its ugly head. In short, it means the continuation of good government, that condition dear to the heart of every man who loves his home, his fireside and his fellow men."

Collier's says: "Judge James Hargis, charged with three murders, proprietor with his brother of the 'Mammoth Department Store' in Jackson, Kentucky, was acquitted the other day at Sandy Hook of the charge of procuring the death of Dr. B. D. Cox. The trial vividly illustrated the grip that Hargis has on Breathitt county, and indicated an influence that extends beyond the county's borders to the state house at Frankfort. His followers believe that he can procure a pardon for any one whose political complexion is right.

"One of the three victims in Jackson was Dr. Cox. Hargis was indicted for procuring his murder. At first it was attempted to hold the trial in Jackson, but the farce, arranged as usual by Hargis to travesty a criminal trial, proved to be too stimulating. It was necessary to call in troops to protect the special judge who, through Hargis' influence, had been appointed to try the case. Then Hargis, reversing his usual statement that Breathitt is a law-abiding place, contended strenuously that on account of the lawlessness of Breathitt he could not secure a fair trial in that county.

"So the case was brought to Sandy Hook. A stranger wonders why Kentucky has never heard of Sandy Hook, said a witness. 'And I don't believe that Sandy Hook has ever heard of Kentucky,' replies another. The town has twenty-odd buildings and a tiny, box-like county courthouse which looks like a modest livery stable. Perhaps a hundred people live there. There is no telegraph line. There are thirty miles of unspeakable roads between the courthouse and the railway. Mail comes twice a week, inaccessible, and surrounded by a wilderness, it would seem impossible that a serious judicial drama could be played there. But to the wise the reason was plain. Another such outcome was to be avoided as that at Jackson, where Special Judge 'Old Bill' Carnes had conducted one trial in such a way as to excite the citizens to indignant protest.

"Against this James Hargis, who in the hot July sunlight sauntered up and down in front of the little court house in Sandy Hook, there was evidence sufficient to convict a half-dozen defendants, were that many being tried with Powers, for complicity in the murder of Goebel. Even many of the Democratic organs of the commonwealth have freely stated their belief in the guilt of Hargis. There is so much evidence against him that when Mrs. Martum went down to Clark county and brought civil suit for the killing of her husband and the deprivation of his support, the jury said that he, with others, had procured the Martum murder and gave her $8,000 damages. This verdict, judgment and the unparalleled fines imposed by Judge Henton, of Winchester, on the defendants for kidnapping witnesses, was affirmed by the Kentucky court of appeals. When Hargis was later tried criminally for being an accessory to the Martum murder, the trial was held in Breathittville, Lee county, a region well under the Hargis influence, and Kentucky newspapers, reporting the trial, called the acquittal a verdict of a 'packed jury.'

"That the prosecution had not been able to procure some of their most important witnesses was common knowledge. They claimed that they had expected no appointment of a judge that time, and that the defendant's attorneys had led them to believe that no one would insist upon an immediate trial at this special term; some of their necessary witnesses, though willing to attend, were out of the state and others were ill. The statement of what they had intended to prove by their witnesses indicated a stronger case than Judge Hargis had ever been obliged to meet.

"It was natural enough that they had asked for time in which to get their witnesses to inaccessible Sandy Hook. But Judge Moody put off a decision upon this question until a jury had been sworn. And now, leaning over the white water pitcher, he refused to consider it. A large gathering, the pet of Sandy Hook, waddled past the door of the court room and squawked down the steps. The attorneys for the prosecution withdrew from the case. The jury listened to the drone of a bee which had invaded this humble hall of justice. Behold them! Judge Moody speaks. The curtain is about to drop. Judge Hargis examines his thumb. For all that Moody can find to do in this situation is to direct the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal."

If Stuyvesant Fish is insistent on a job, President Harrison might make him some kind of yardmaster in Paducah.

Mayor Yelzer is right. Burn the offals.

The cost of living has reached the preachers. If the price of preaching goes up, some worldly brothers will be agitating consolidation. Guess a church trust would do something to that ministers' union in Wisconsin. And yet, they must live and rear families.

TEACHERS AND PARENTS. The Sun trusts that parents and patrons of the city schools will accept the invitation of Superintendent J. A. Carnegie to visit the schools "Parents' Day" in the spirit in which it is offered, and avail themselves of the opportunity to get acquainted with the schools, the teachers and the methods of instructing the children.

Too little interest in the welfare of their children is taken by parents. An incompetent or careless teacher may ruin the children. A good teacher with the co-operation of the parents may train a child into a man who will bring honor to his parents. The country boy, possessed of a natural aptness for study, has an advantage over his city cousin, where the teacher "boards round." The teacher is brought into contact with the home life of the pupil and is enabled to get an insight into the pupil's character not afforded in the school room. Teacher and pupil are thrown together socially and parents are unconsciously impelled to co-operate with the teacher in training the youth in every country school there is a "star" pupil, and he is a real star, his aspirations fixed high and his hopes held above the temptations that beset youthful feet in our cities. Lack of attention to the individual needs of pupils is the one weakness of our city school systems, and a condition necessary, because of the number of pupils taught by each teacher and the inelastic nature of the graded course. They must supplement the work of the school room with home training, and they can supplement the work only by first getting acquainted with the teacher and the methods.

WOULD PUT BENCHES IN HOUSE.

Bentley Arranges Congress for Combating Illness and Debate.

Washington, Oct. 16.—"Our congress is the only legislative body in the world, so far as I am informed, where an attempt is made to combine business with debate," said Representative Houtell, of Chicago. "Such a physical effort is necessary to make one's self heard upon the floor that great confusion exists and only the most experienced can carry on an argument; there is every reason why we should remove the desks and substitute benches. With a new office building where each member will have a room in which to write his letters and dispose of his official business the hall of the house may well be given over to executive business. The galleries could then be enlarged."

Teddy's Cold Swims.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 16.—At 6 o'clock last night no news of the president's day's hunt had been received here. Brutus Jackson, the negro hunter, who went to Newellton to locate a camp there last week when it was decided to go there, returned today and brought a fresh supply of bear dogs with him, and an effort is being made to secure even more from the same source to take the place of the animals on hand, which are becoming much jaded.

Arrivals from the Bear lake encampment tell marvelous stories of the president's hardihood and capacity for roughing it. When he carried his blankets with him from the upper camp last Friday, and that night and next morning ate only the cold bread and meat he had taken in his saddlepockets, they marveled that a president could be so easily satisfied, but when he jumped into Bear lake for a swim upon rising at daybreak this morning their astonishment was almost without bounds.

The thermometer registered at the time less than 40 degrees and most of the others present were sedulously hugging the camp fire. The president plunged into the water as soon as he arose. As he approached the edge of the lake he bantered some of the other members of his immediate party to join him but none did so. He swam a distance of a hundred yards to an island and then returned, declaring upon landing that the exercise had been most exhilarating and that the water was warmer than the air.

BRAKE SHOE

URQUHART PATENT WILL BE MANUFACTURED HERE.

Colored Switchman's Invention of Device That Will Be Serviceable and Cheap.

Thorough and successful tests on various railroads having demonstrated beyond a doubt the value of the Urquhart patent brake shoe, active steps are being taken by Paducah capitalists to erect a foundry for manufacturing the shoe, and it is announced that definite steps will be taken within a few weeks. Among Paducahans who are interested in the stock company formed to manufacture the shoe are Messrs. James Weller, J. A. McConn, Abe Livingston, H. A. Potter, Roy McKinney, Dr. E. R. Earle and Henry Urquhart, the latter an Illinois Central colored switchman, who invented the shoe.

Urquhart, through years of service in Paducah yards, saw the necessity of a brake shoe that would not shake off and cause derailments of engines. He soon hit upon a preventive, and was granted a patent. Models of the shoe were sent to many big roads.

In speaking of the foundry a member of the company said today: "The central foundry will be in Paducah and we expect to employ something like 150 molders. We are getting in orders from various roads, and it may be that through necessity we will have to establish branch foundries in other sections of the country. The Urquhart brake shoe is a money saver to railroads, and will for the means of making Paducah one of the biggest foundry centers in this section of the country."

MAY INDICT HARRIMAN FOR RECENT REBATES.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner Lane, who went to California in response to reports from agents of the commission declaring that the Southern Pacific Railroad company was giving rebates, and that proof could be obtained, has returned to Washington. He says the results exceeded his expectations.

Commissioner Lane believes that a violation of the law can be proved, and it is the present understanding that as soon as the facts collected are submitted to the full commission, certification of the illegal operations of the railroad will be made to the department of justice with a request for immediate prosecution of those responsible. The law, as it now stands, provides a two-year imprisonment for each offense. Whether Mr. Harriman can be indicted will depend upon whether his responsibility for the alleged violations of the law can be demonstrated. Members of the interstate commerce commission believe it can. They say he is the president of the Southern Pacific company, and either knew or should have known what his subordinates were doing.

What Osteopathy Is. The question is often asked "What is Osteopathy?" for some people have a very vague idea of this new science that is doing so much to aid mankind. Osteopathy, when well digested, is nothing but good sense and reason.

It is a method for treating disease by manipulation, to restore the normal condition of the nerve control and the blood supply to every organ of the body by removing the physical obstructions, or by stimulating, or checking, functional activity, as the conditions may require.

A diseased body is caused by some interference to a working part of the organism, and a correction of it brings restored health. Therefore osteopathy finds the disturbance and, righting it, effects its cure.

Some of the diseases in which osteopathic treatment has been the most effective are headaches of all kinds, nervous disorders, malaria and bilious, tired down and fagged out conditions, indigestion in its many forms, kidney troubles, neuralgia and rheumatism. It treats successfully, however, nearly all diseases. If you are ailing, no matter what your particular trouble may be, I should like to have you call and let me tell you why Osteopathy will cure in your special case. I do not claim that Osteopathy is a cure-all, but am frank and will tell you what it will do in any individual case, at the same time referring you to people you know, who will gladly tell you what the treatment has done for them.

Candidate Who Talks Best German May Be Made Cincinnati Mayor.

Cincinnati, Oct. 16.—Cincinnati, although still claiming to be an integral part of the United States, wants a German mayor. The municipal campaign now in progress has resolved itself into a contest for the demonstration of which of the candidates can talk the best German. Machine politics and municipal, state and national policies which have agitated the voters in previous elections are in the background.

Colonel Leopold Markbreit, the Republican candidate, says that Vice Mayor Pfaff, who is the city party candidate for mayor, talks German that "would make a dog sick." The Pfaff men reply by quoting from an issue of Markbreit's paper, the Volksblatt, not long ago, a criticism on a speech by Pfaff, saying it was an example of pure and polished German. Today Markbreit came back at Pfaff by intimating that the speech was written by Mr. Landawo, Mayor Dempsey's secretary.

The mayor also is in the race, but his opponents claim he has no chance, since the German vote control the municipal election, and Mayor Dempsey's secretary.

The sensational shooting occurred at 9 o'clock tonight just across the street from the government building, in a crowd of 300 interested spectators of an open-air performance in front of a vaudeville theater. The trouble between Davis and the Keys brothers dates back eight months ago, when Miss Martha Keys, sister of the young men who did the shooting, was found at a local hotel here. Davis fled to South Mississippi, but was found by the two young men and brought back. He was forced to marry the girl, but immediately left her. The Keys family is said to have sent him word that if he remained out of the state no further trouble would result.

PERMANENT SPEED.

Designs Men in 20 Knots for Torpedo Boat Destroyers.

Washington, Oct. 16. The fact that in designing the new torpedo boat destroyers about to be built, the speed was placed at 24 knots has been brought to the attention of the president by some officers, who assert that in this respect the boats will be inferior to the fast European destroyers. The president has inquired into the matter, and it will be shown by the designers that while many of the European boats are faster "on paper" or while jockeyed up for a run over a mile course, few if any of them can maintain their reputed speed in a sea way under service conditions.

On the other hand, the American boats are planned to make twenty-four knots an hour in and out of season, to keep it up in heavy weather, to be strong enough in hull and engine and machinery to meet all service demands, and finally, an all-important consideration, carry enough coal to enable them to cruise twice as far as the European boats.

USE POLAR BEARS TO DRAW SLEDGES TO NORTH POLE

New York, Oct. 16.—That he would try to the north pole in 1910, with polar bears to draw his sledges on the final dash, was stated by Capt. Ronald Amundsen, navigator of the north magnetic pole, who arrived today on the ship H. from Christiania. Capt. Amundsen, who traversed the polar regions from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the Gjoa, a 49-ton sloop, says that he will set apart five years in which to complete his voyage to the pole, for in his opinion it can be done in no shorter time.

"I expect to provision my ship for six years at least, and I do not think that I could reach the goal and return for five years after starting. I will enter the northern waters in September or October."

When Capt. Amundsen was asked concerning the kind of vessel he would build to sail that all he asked for was the Fram, used by Nansen, for he considered that ship as good as any that could be constructed for the purpose.

KILLED HIS MOTHER

Kansas City Boy Shoots at Burghar, Hit Misses Him.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 16.—George Smiley, aged 17, shot and killed his mother, Mrs. Elzie Scholter, aged 42, in their home at 2943 Myrtle avenue at 3:30 o'clock this morning. In a statement to the officers Smiley says he shot his mother in defending her against a burglar. He is being held for investigation.

Smiley said he had been awakened by the screams of his mother, who told him there was a burglar in the house. The woman had grappled with the man and urged Smiley to get his shotgun. A moment later the burglar had freed himself and was making an attempt to escape when Mrs. Scholter ordered Smiley to shoot. As Smiley raised the gun and fired, the burglar, he says, pushed the woman in front of him.

She received the full effect of the discharge, dying within a few moments.

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's Ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement.
No other medicine has such a record of cures of female illnesses or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
For more than 30 years it has been curing all forms of Female Complaints, Inflammation and Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.
It has cured more cases of Backache and Local Weakness than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development. Irregularities and periodical pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.
It removes that weary feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues". These are indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the organs, which this medicine cures as well as Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex.
Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

DIRECT PRIMARY WITH PLURALITY

Will do Away With Party Conventions and Bosses

Illinois Bill Provides for Election of Committees By Popular Vote of Parties.

DRASTIC MEASURES PROPOSED

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 16.—Representative John G. Oglesby, chairman of the primary law committee of the house of representatives, tomorrow will introduce a direct plurality primary bill which would make political conventions things of the past in Illinois, and place all nominations for all offices directly in the hands of the people. Mr. Oglesby and Attorney General Stead have drawn the law, and they, with Cleo J. Lindy, chairman of the house steering committee, revised it this afternoon. Mr. Stead, according to the two representatives, has pronounced it legally flawless, and if the legislature wants to eliminate conventions from politics it will have a chance to do so.

The bill, if taken seriously, will cause a titanic political spasm in Chicago, and will throw the esteemed senate into a permanent condition of fits. It will be a bitter pill even for the house, but the representatives may have to pass it. Speaker Shurtliff is not in love with the idea, but is not likely to oppose it, and so many Democrats and Republicans in the house have formed a holy alliance with the cause of direct primaries that they may not be able to sidestep them when a chance is given to pass such a bill.

It provides for the election of party committees by a direct vote and for the nomination of candidates for all offices from township to state by the people directly. It also provides for the election of national convention delegates and alternates by direct vote, and national conventions are the only delegate gatherings which it recognizes in any form.

Direct as a Rifle Shot.
Its "directness" is the most appalling thing Illinois politicians have been given a look at since primary legislation began to be talked of, and there does not seem to be much excuse for its not getting the support of statesmen who have been talking of direct primaries as things new, and dear to them.

What will happen to it remains to be seen. There still are people who have not lost all confidence in the ability of the Illinois general assembly to find a way out of difficulties, in spite of this hangover session.

The bill provides for three primaries, two for municipal and township nominations and one for all nominations for the November elections. The last primary is fixed for the last Saturday in April. For Chicago municipal nominations and for nominations in other cities electing city officers the first Tuesday in April a primary election is fixed for the last Saturday in February, and for cities electing on the third Tuesday in April a primary is fixed for the second Tuesday in March. Candidates for state offices have their names placed on the primary ballot on filing petitions containing not more than 2,000 nor less than 1,000 signatures. Candidates for the United States senate may have their names submitted to an advisory vote of the people by filing petitions of not more than 5,000 nor less than 3,000 names.

A maximum as well as a minimum limit is fixed to prevent the circulating of big petitions for political effect. For all other candidates a petition of one-half of 1 per cent of the total vote is required.

Political Parties Defined.
Parties which have polled 2 per cent of the total vote of the state or district in which they wish to nominate are considered political parties within the operation of the act.

The candidates receiving the highest vote of voters of their party at the primaries thereby become the candidate of the party. No conventions would be held. The party platforms would be drafted by the state central committee of each party, the committees having the privilege of calling the candidates into conference with them on this subject.

The party organization is also placed directly in the hands of the voter. County committees would consist of a representative from each precinct, elected by the vote of his party in his precinct. Two precinct officials would be elected in every precinct, and the one elected by the highest vote would become the precinct captain and the representative of the precinct on the county committee.

How It Affects Cook.

In Cook county such a scheme of representation would make a county central committee of 1,382 members for each party. The Republican committee now is composed of 41 members. Mr. Oglesby says it is realized that such a scheme of representation would be cumbersome beyond description in Chicago, but that it would not be in other counties, and that the provisions of the law must be uniform for all the state. He suggested that the Cook county organization could remove the difficulty by vesting the managing power in an executive committee elected by the precinct representatives, one for each ward, and still further centralize power by electing a managing committee from the members of the executive committee.

The state committee would remain as at present organized, one from each congressional district, but elected by the vote of the people. Senatorial and congressional committees would consist of the chairmen of county central committees in districts composed of more than one county, or county committees in themselves, or of precinct representatives in counties which comprise two or more districts.

It is required that the members of the state committee meet in Springfield 30 days after the primaries and organize by electing officers. Candidates for the committees and for place as delegates to national conventions would have their names printed on the ballots on filing of petitions, with 100 signatures, except in the case of precinct representatives, in which case the names would not be printed on the ballot, but would be written on them by the voters. It is freely admitted by legislators in Springfield that the bill is beautifully direct, but they do not say it will be passed.

HOW THINGS HAVE CHANGED

Hon. John K. Hendrick, who is now the Democratic nominee for attorney general, and who is the ablest speaker on the Democratic ticket, was a candidate for governor against Governor Beckham four years ago and made a speech at Nicholasville in which he scored the governor for his machine methods and extravagance with the people's money. Among other good things he said:

Machine Politics.
"Let us pause and think for a moment. Mr. Goebel was nominated on the twenty-first day of June, 1899, and Mr. Beckham was nominated in July, 1900. These conventions were at least early enough for all practical purposes, but after the governor had snatched the committee with official honors, as I have already indicated, at his suggestion they concluded to call a snap primary election in order to force off opposition to their patron saint, who had showered so many official blessings upon them, and they gave to candidates who desired to seek preferment from their fellow-citizens, 120 days in which to canvass 119 counties. And the governor exclaims, 'Behold, how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in harmony and peace.' But, for fear that this snap primary would not deter persons who might desire to oppose his majesty, the committee for the first time in the history of the Democratic party, created a money standard of qualification, and for the first time within the history of the party has said to the aspiring young men of Kentucky that they need not apply for official preferment unless they can afford the price."

I appeal to the young men of the state to line up against such machine methods and aristocratic tendencies if they desire in the future to seek honors at the hands of their party. There was a time in the history of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky, Henry Clay, the "Mill Boy of the Slashes," of Abraham Lincoln, the Rail Splitter; Stephen A. Douglas, the cabinetmaker; Andrew Johnson, the tailor, when neither of them could have paid the price under the arbitrary decrees of the committee, for the privilege of running for office in the state of Kentucky. These great benefactors of mankind, who have glorified the history of Kentucky, were once as poor as the poorest boy now in our commonwealth—but by pluck and energy and honesty they reached the highest positions within the gift of the people—not one of them would ever have been heard of in politics if the methods of this machine committee had dominated political parties in their day. Every young man in the state owes it to himself to rebuke Beckham for thus trying to convert the party of the people into a machine-dominated, pot-house politician-ridden party. Is it wrong that I should refer to them with the deepest sorrow?"

The Calhoun Fee.

Speaking of the enormous fee of $30,000 paid to C. C. Calhoun for collecting $1,300,000 from the government Mr. Hendrick said: "Let the distinguished gentlemen no longer dodge, but explain to the taxpayers why he and Calhoun entered into a contract to 'sandbag' the taxpayers out of this enormous sum of money. There is one other item among many, while I am on this subject, that I will call upon His Excellency to explain. The United States government recently passed an act to pay the Spanish-American soldiers who enlisted from Kentucky for the time elapsing between their enlistment and the date of their being mustered into service, and allotted to Kentucky $150,000, to be paid to her soldier boys, and not to C. C. Calhoun. The governor, after he was notified of this, through that strange and inexplicable attachment between him and Calhoun sent Calhoun after the money, which was received and brought to Frankfort, and deposited, not to the credit of the state treasurer, but to the personal credit of J. C. W. Beckham, without bond, and when it was paid out, about $18,000 was retained. Who got it divinity alone can tell. Let the governor explain this, and then I will oblige the people and likewise the governor, by furnishing some other information, which I am loath to disclose without being forced to the point, as to what became of a part of it. As this money was being distributed to the poor soldiers, who had braved the elements of a foreign clime in their country's defense, they were patted upon the back, while a part of their money was being withheld and asked 'not to forget Creeps.'

"Thus it will be seen that this young attorney without a practice received the sum of something like $30,000 for a little less than a year's labor—a sum sufficient to pay a circuit judge for his services thirty years; a congressman or a judge of the court of appeals, eighteen years; the governor, fourteen years. While the governor is discussing the reasonableness of this fee he might expatiate on these trivial suggestions in the presence of the hard-worked taxpayers. This money was paid to Governor Beckham as the commander-in-chief of the soldiers of Kentucky under the constitution, and there is not a line of law upon the statute books or anywhere else to authorize him to employ anybody to receive it or pay out one dollar for collecting it. And while explaining these enormous fees he might find it difficult to give a little attention and a few words in explanation as to why he employed counsel to assist Judge Loyer and John W. Ray in the franchise tax cases against the insurance companies. The fee had been agreed upon by these gentlemen at $3,000 and everyone at all familiar with their capacity knows that they are amply able to take care of any character of litigation. But the governor positively declined to ratify the employment, unless his uncle, J. C. W. Beckham, should be taken in. He was finally taken into the case, and the fee increased to $5,000. In view of these facts it cannot be denied that the governor is exceedingly liberal with the people's money. And by the way, when Mr. Epps and 'Uncle Collie' were taken into the case, and the new contract for this enormous fee was consummated, Mr. John W. Ray, who up to that time had presciently done all of the work, was dropped out of the contract, and the governor's uncle substituted, and since he was so substituted the part which 'Uncle Collie' has played in the litigation has been so nominal that he can scarcely be referred to as an attorney in the case except in a division of the fee.

"Time forbids I should go farther into the striking details of squandering the people's money in the profligate employment of attorneys, but the record shows that in his efforts to secure the warm friendship of leading lawyers he has paid out considerably more than $100,000 of the people's money in the way of fees.
"The solicitude of the governor for fear that some one will 'sandbag' the corporations of the state is really pathetic. My experience with the corporations demonstrates to me that they generally take pretty good care of themselves, so the governor's anxiety for fear they may be 'sandbagged' leads one involuntarily to ask himself what strange sympathy can exist between the governor and the corporations to induce such earnest affection? But in view of the record of the governor the remarkable part of his speech is in reference to 'pardon-brokers.' During his administration of the executive department he has pardoned more than 1,000 persons, including remissions, etc., for violating the laws of the state, and the breathless county criminals have been most liberally remembered. We may at least indulge the presumption that the 'pardon-brokers' have not been idle in that locality, while the criminals in the great city of Louisville have not been overlooked."
And now we have the strange spectacle of Hon. John K. Hendrick on the stump defending with all the power of his eloquence the state administration that four years ago he so violently assailed and condemned. Verily, the trail of the serpent is over them all.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. FOREST RESERVE PLANS PROPOSED

Dr. Will to Speak Under Auspices of Woman's Club.

Great Appalachian Park is Now Being Considered By Department of Government.

MOST IMPORTANT DISCUSSION

With a view of bringing as clearly as possible before the people of the south the vital importance to their well being of the southern Appalachian question the American Forestry association has arranged, with the cooperation of boards of trade and chambers of commerce, to send a secretary, Dr. Thomas Edgar Will, this fall to the leading cities of the south. It is believed that the best results can be obtained by organizing great public meetings, filling, where practicable, the largest halls and giving, through the press, the widest publicity to the matter discussed. Dr. Will is an educator and public speaker of many years' standing. He will carry with him a fine set of lantern slides with which, where a lecturer and operator are provided, his lecture will be illustrated. It is hoped also, that he may meet and confer with the leading citizens regarding methods of promoting interest in the Appalachian question. It is desired that this tour may be made a notable one, and that it may exert an important influence in preserving the forests of the south and, with them, the vastly important interests, public and private, dependent thereupon. To this end the association solicits the co-operation of all public spirited citizens in the territory to be visited.

Dr. Will has been secured to speak in Paducah and will appear under the auspices of the civic department of the Woman's club and the forestry committee of the Commercial club, who are Mr. John S. Brecker and Mr. Saunders A. Fowler. He will speak at the Woman's club house on the night of November 1 and the lecture will be entirely free. Dr. Will, coming to Paducah will be an opportunity for many "city beautiful" points, too, in regard to the trees for the parks, boulevards and streets, as he is the most notable authority on such matters that has come to our city. The president of the American Forestry association is the Hon. James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, and the headquarters is Washington, D. C., famous for its civic beauty and whose public parks are all in charge of Frederick Law Olmstead, the landscape artist.

RIVER NEWS

Following the rise up the river a rise of 3 was shown by the marks on the government gauge at the foot of Broadway this morning, the stage being 7.2.

FLOOD IN SPAIN COVERS VAST AREA; MANY PERISH.

Madrid, Oct. 16.—Phenomenally heavy rains fell yesterday throughout the Province of Barcelona. The rivers have risen, in some cases 25 feet, sweeping away highways, roads, bridges, telegraph lines, houses, flocks, and crops. The country between the rivers Llobregat and Cardener is not an enormous delta lake. It is impossible to communicate with thousands of sufferers except by means of boats, which are going from the ports, manned by naval men and others.

Soldiers and members of the Red Cross have been sent to the surrounding high grounds to rescue the people.

Industry and agriculture have been stopped in an immense area. The towns are not lighted at night, electric and gas plants having been flooded, and in many cases destroyed. There is reason to suppose that hundreds of persons have been drowned. There have been disastrous floods elsewhere, notably at Valencia, San Sebastian, Malaga and Granada.

Bodies Wash Out to Sea. Barcelona, Oct. 16.—It is feared that thousands of persons have been drowned in the Llobregat and Cardener flood. The water is 25 feet deep over thousands of acres. It will be impossible for a long time to ascertain the number of victims, as the current washes the bodies out to sea.

TEN CITIES WANT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Elmer Dwyer, secretary of the Republican national committee, opened committee headquarters here today in the Colorado building and expects them to remain open until the campaign is over. He says that up-to-date cities filling suggestions with the committee that they would like to entertain the Republican national convention include St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago, Denver, Omaha, Seattle, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Boston and Atlantic City.

WOODMEN

HAD BIG CELEBRATION AT THE FAIR GROUNDS YESTERDAY.

Fact, as Exclusively Told in The Sun, That Root Was Not Present. No Drawback.

Although the failure of Sovereign Commander Root to reach Paducah caused a great many of the visiting Woodmen to take the early train for home yesterday afternoon, a large crowd gathered at the fair grounds and was entertained with speeches by Hon. Wheeler Campbell and Sovereign Manager T. E. Patterson, of Tennessee. Other speakers, who were on the program, did not attend.

About 200 formed in the parade that marched from Jersey camp in Mechanicburg to Ninth street and Broadway, and these were joined by others, who were at the fair grounds waiting for the speaking.

A telegram was read to the crowd explaining that Commander Root was sick in a Chicago hospital. Sovereign Banker Shepard, who was also expected, telegraphed that he had failed to reach St. Louis in time to make the Paducah train.

Don't's band, which had been engaged to make music for the occasion, refused to play when it learned that the W. O. W. band would march in the parade. The Woodmen band is composed of musicians, that do not belong to the Mustelians' union.

LODGE IS BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Massachusetts Senator Keeps Promise to Aid in Graft Fight.

Boston, Oct. 16.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was called before the Suffolk county grand jury today because of statements he made recently before the Republican state convention, in which he suggested that graft exists in the city hall. He stayed seven minutes in the jury room. What happened there was not revealed. District Attorney Morin desired to have Senator Lodge present any evidence of corruption in the management of the city. The senator had publicly announced he was willing to do all he could to aid the district attorney in fighting graft.

"Did you hear about the joke they played on Fergus when he was initiated into that new fraternity?" The boys took him over to the medical college, put him under the influence of an anesthetic and got the doctor to operate on him for appendicitis. "H'm! Fairly sidesplitting, wasn't it?"

MINSTREL SHOW

WILL BE GIVEN BY HIGH SCHOOL BOYS.

Benefit of Ishkodah, Athletics and Literary Will Take Place in Auditorium School Notes.

Boys of Paducah High school will give another minstrel show and hope to do better than last year when nearly $100 was netted from one performance. Arrangements will be made at once, and the date will be some time in November. Last year the minstrel proved a success beyond the expectations of the promoters. A total of $29.80 was netted above all expenses. The sum was prorated among funds, some going to the Ishkodah, the school journal, some to athletic expenses and some to the library. Teachers will assist pupils in the program. The minstrel idea will be carried out to the letter. The show will be given in the High school auditorium.

Miss Blanche Ingram, who was ill yesterday afternoon and unable to teach at the Washington school, is on duty this morning.

Miss Louise James, of the cadet class, was substituted for her.

Miss Mamie Noble, of the High school faculty, is ill and unable to be at school.

GREAT ENTAPPED GOLD FIELDS IN THE TRANSVAAL.

London, Oct. 16.—As a result of investigations recently made in South Africa, J. H. Robinson, chairman of the Robinson South African Banking company and owner of gold mines in South Africa, figures that there is a million millions' worth of gold that can yet be taken out of the Rand. Moreover he is convinced that there are immense deposits of gold, gems and minerals as yet untapped in the Transvaal.

FIRE DRILL SAVES 500 PUPILS.

Students March in Order From Burned School in Dixon, Ill.

Dixon, Ill., Oct. 15.—Five hundred pupils in the new $10,000 high school marched through the corridors of the building, which were filled with smoke, today, during a fire which destroyed the building. The pupils formed in line when the teachers sounded the fire drill and escaped without panic or injury. Several teachers were overcome by smoke and were carried out by firemen.
